MEDICINAL.

The crowning joy of womanhood is motherhood and the crowning joy of motherhood is to have healthy children. But there can be no joy in motherhood without health, and without health for the mother there can be no health for the child.

It is of vital importance for women to know that the health of mother and child is in general entirely within woman's control. The thousands of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when expecting motherhood, have testified that it made them healthy and happy in the days of waiting, made the baby's advent practically painless, and gave them health to give their children.

Mrs. W. J. Miller, of Mill Dale Farm (Knobloch Center), Chesapeake, Va., writes: "During the past year I found myself expecting motherhood in rapidly failing health. I suffered dreadfully from bleeding and urinary difficulty. I was growing exceedingly weaker each day and suffered much sharp pain at times. I felt that something must be done. I sought your advice and received a prompt reply. Took twelve bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and also followed your instructions. I began to improve immediately, my health became excellent, and I could do all my own work (we live on a good sized farm). I walked and rode all I could, and enjoyed it. I had a short, easy confinement and have a healthy baby boy."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages, is given away. Send 21 one-cent stamps for expense of mailing only, for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE LATE CHARLES B. ROUSS.

The death of Charles Broadway

Rouss in New York yesterday, was announced in the Gazette of that date.

Born in Maryland, Mr. Rouss spent his boyhood and early manhood in Virginia, where he established himself in business and became a successful merchant.

At the beginning of the civil war, and he enlisted in the Confederate army and fought for the Lost Cause until the end of the conflict. Then, almost penniless, he went to New York to begin life anew. His pluck and capacity enabled him to achieve success beyond his most sanguine expectations.

He built up a business which brought him fortune and reputation. The man who landed in New York with only a few dollars in his pocket became one of the merchant princes of the metropolis.

Mr. Rouss never forgot the State of his adoption, in which he had won his earlier successes as a merchant, and his heart was ever true to the cause for which he had given some of the best years of his life. Many old Confederate soldiers whose lines after the war were not cast in pleasant places have been the recipients of his generous bounty. His public bequests are well known, and those who were intimate with Mr. Rouss say his life should be lived in kindliness and that his generosity was unbounded. The last years of Mr. Rouss's life were clouded by illness, but he bore it manfully. Although he was blind, he tended to many details of his business. The world must have looked very blue to him when he came to New York nearly 37 years ago to begin life over again in a strange land, among strangers. But he was determined to succeed, and his honesty, energy and grim resolution brought him the fortune he was wont upon acquiring. Mr. Rouss was a type of the young men of the South who fought the battles of the Confederacy and then, when defeat came, set to work to retrieve their fortunes.

Believes Consumption Can Be Cured.

THE NEW JERSEY HOUSE COMMISSIONER on public health yesterday gave a hearing on the bill to establish a State sanatorium for consumptives. There was a large array of physicians from all parts of the State to advocate the bill. The principal speaker was Dr. Lawrence Flick, president of the Free Hospital for Consumptives at Philadelphia. Dr. Flick said that consumptum could be cured. There are in the United States, he said, from 300,000 to 400,000 persons afflicted with the disease and the deaths from consumptum reach 150,000 a year. He expressed the opinion that if $400,000,000 could be secured the disease could be entirely wiped out in 15 years. He stated that in Philadelphia since 1884, when the people began to be interested in the treatment of consumptum, the death rate from the disease had fallen off 83 per cent. In the last few years the consumption death rate in London has been reduced 50 per cent. Dr. Flick explained that the method used in the treatment of consumptum to effect a cure was forced feeding, plenty of air and exercise.

100 Miles Done in Water Shoes.

Capt. Grossmann, who started on February 6 to walk down the Danube from Linz to Vienna, 100 miles, on his newly invented water-walking shoes, towing his wife in a boat, arrived at Vienna Thursday. The long time spent on the journey is explained by the fact that Capt. Grossmann stopped at several places to give exhibitions of his shoes. These were five days long. The trip was made without mishap, notwithstanding there was an unusually strong current and much floating ice in the river. In addition, there were a number of storms, which made the traveling perilous.

OVERDUE STEAMER.—A dispatch from

Queensdown says that while many inquiries have been made regarding the non-arrival there of the Cunard line steamer Etruria from New York for Queensdown and Liverpool, February 22, which, at midnight, was about 65 hours overdue, no anxiety was manifested as to the steamer's safety. The delay in the Etruria's reaching Queensdown is attributed to rough weather and easterly winds. Officials in London say they feel no anxiety and suggest that the Etruria may have been detained at night accident or may be towing a straggling vessel.

GIRL FELL IN HER BATH TUB.—While

a patron was bathing in a barber shop, on Shawmut avenue, Boston, recently, there was a tremendous splash and he was nearly paralyzed with excitement to find that a 15-year-old girl had appeared in the tub beside which he was standing. The girl had been leaning over a railing and it gave way. She fell through the skylight into the bath room. Her injuries are not serious.

Pneumonia Prevented.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and in grippes during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia.

Thos. Waitfield & Co., 249 W. Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this remedy, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a gripple in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of a gripple to result in pneumonia." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

Practically Starving.

"After using a few bottles of Kofol Dyspepsia Cure my wife received perfect and permanent relief from a severe and chronic case of stomach trouble," says J. R. Holly, real estate, insurance and loan agent, of Macon, Ill. "Before using Kofol Dyspepsia Cure she could not eat an ordinary meal without intense suffering. She is now entirely cured. Several physicians and many remedies had failed to give relief. You don't have to diet. Eat any good food you want, but don't overload the stomach. Kofol Dyspepsia Cure will always digest it for you. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Son.

THERE IS ONE RATIONAL WAY TO

treat nasal catarrh; the medicine is applied directly to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost sense of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiences should use Ely's Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cents. Ely Brothers, 55 Warren Street, New York.
